

siderably during the next few few weeks ago. weeks, although the real soplace until the first day of January. But any who think there is nothing to be Meriam, of Kensington. They will spend done in a social way in Washington before that time is guilty of gross ignorance, for the resident circle, that most substantial and exclusive one, has almost entirely assembled from their became a benedict Wednesday evening various summer houses and visiting his bride being Miss Ruth Hood. This places, and is busy, weeks before the of- wedding was a beautiful one, although ficial and diplomatic entertaining has be- carried out with much simplicity and gun. Labor Day has grown to be a di- with a small company, in the home of viding line between the summer and the the bride's parents, in Twenty-second autumn, for every one who is out of street. town endeavors to remain out until after that day, and every one in town struggles to arrange affairs so as to get away, at least for that week-end, if not for longer.

The diplomats are slow in returning and will not be in their various embassles and legations here for more than to be educated in this country. His wife a month, except for here and there an industrious or ambitious one. The centennial celebration in Mexico and the Pan-American conference and independ- languages, is earnest in his efforts to a large number

The Newport gayeties will have a brilliant close this year, with the horse show and its attending visitors and festivities, and the reception of Mrs. Elsie French Vanderbilt and Mrs. F. Lothrop Ames to-morrow night. Incidentally, it is interesting to know that Mrs. Vanderbilt, who is remaining late in Newport this season, expects to spend a portion of the winter in Washington. She and Mr. Vanderbilt were here several years ago at a White House reception.

September will mark the temporary return of the President and the members WEDDINGS-ENGAGEMENTS of his Cabinet, whom he will entertain at the White House, for a few days' conference. The President will then return here. Then will come the ship trip to Panama for the President and Mrs. Taft and their party, before they settle down to the duties of the winter.

tries and sail from Buenos Ayres for of Falls Church, Va., officiated. Followtheir home in England. They will not ing the ceremony, an informal reception others in the bridal party journeyed down return before December 1. The charge was held, and later in the day the young d'affaires, Mr. Innes, and the secretaries couple left for a Northern wedding trip. mansion which has so long been the reside at the Windsor. home of the British diplomats is undergoing considerable repairs and improve-

The Turkish Ambassador, Youssouf Zia were present at the ceremony. Pacha, who has spent a few weeks at Manhattan Beach, and the new counselor to the embassy here next week. The new counselor is not a stranger here, as he was the first counselor of the embassy here. He came here when the legation was raised to an embassy, in January, 1909, and remained in that cafirst Ambassador, for six months.

moves two charming and interesting over pink taffeta, with a large picture derson Eastman, who has been the guest girls from the diplomatic circle here, the Misses Eva and Mary de Lagercrantz. La France roses. The two young women were presented to in Washington.

son in weddings during the winter and bridegroom left for a trip to Atlantic the forthcoming spring. The great num- City. The bride's going away gown was ber of Cupid's conquests will be an- a tan rajah silk suit, with a black velnounced during the next two months, but vet turban with plumes. They will be as yet he demands silence upon all the at home to their friends after Septemprivileged friends who know the truth. ber 15, at their new home in Maryland Age does not enter into it, either, for avenue southwest. these announcements will be made about many who have long since arrived at the age of discretion.

September weddings in Washington are invariably simple ones, attended by ket, son of the late George H. Colket, of small companies, usually only relatives Philadelphia, yesterday. The ceremony and intimate friends. The past week was was performed in the Church of St. John Gay was formerly Miss Louise Gallatin, Miss Ellen Glasgow, Miss Mary Johnston, a notable one for them. Wednesday a the Evangelist, in the country village of and the baby is a great-great-grand- and Mr. George Barr McCutcheon. Fol- Naval Academy, Annapolis, from East the matter of dates and details. One of son Hurlbut acted as best man for Mr. the prettiest, with the prettiest bride, Colket, and Miss Mary Dudley Kenna was that of Miss Rose Osgood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Whitman Osgood, to Following the ceremony the guests Lieut. Charles Edgar Brillhart, U. S. N., who were only a few intimate friends N. J., accompanied by her children. They on September 15 from Hamilton, Mass. which took place in the parior suite of of the families, went by automobile to the New Willard and was attended only the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edley Kenna, by the families. Lieut. Brillhart is in the Rocks, Boar's Head, Sussex, where

TASHINGTON will wake up con- mourning for his mother, who died a

Miss Anna Clara Harris Whitfield, siscial awakening will not take ter of Lieut. Robert Whitfield, U. S. A., was married at noon Wednesday to Mr. Welles Meriam, brother of Mr. Lewis the late autumn in Kensington, and then come to Washington for the winter. Another of this year's graduates at West Point, Lieut. John J. Waterman,

The appointment of Mirza All Kuli

Khan as Persian charge d'affaires here is another gratifying return of an old friend. He has been absent in Persia for eight months, and has returned with a little party of sons of Persian noblemen, was Miss Florence Breen, of Boston, a member of one of Boston's oldest and most exclusive families. He speaks many ence celebration in Chile are all detaining bring modern methods into Persia, and is an authority on art and literature. His lectures on art, including the gorgeous rugs and bric-a-brac of the Orient, were the feature of the Lenten season for several years, and were given here in the homes of some of the smartest society people. He was not at that time attached to the Persian Legation, but his wife acted as hostess for the Minister in the absence of the women members of his family. Ali Kuli Khan presented his credentials as charge d'affaires to Acting Secretary of State Huntington Vilson

The engagement is announced of Miss Leilea A. Vincent, daughter of Mr. and to Beverly to remain for a few weeks Mrs. Thomas Lynch, of Chicago, to John with his family before they all return F. Stevens, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Stevens, of this city.

The marriage is announced of Miss Daisy Easterday and Mr. Arthur Given. The wedding took place last Thursday The British Ambassador and Mrs. Bryce afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of have gone from the summer embassy to Mrs. William A. Easterday, at the Wind-From there they will go to sor. Only a few relatives and intimate and Mrs. Colket will spend their honey- Continent, and will also visit the "Pas-Peru, Chile, and South American coun- friends were present. Rev. D. Andrews, will return here on October 1. The old Upon their return to this city they will

Miss Emma McR. Potts and Thomas ments. A second story is being added H. Quantrell were married yesterday at vin McC. Smith, Sixteenth Infantry. to the "chancery," and the central hall noon in the parsonage of the Ninth of the great house is being done over in Street Christian Church, Rev. George A. Miller, pastor, officiating. Only a small company of relatives and intimate friends

Mrs. Sara E. Berens, and Mr. James H. Fifth Baptist Church. Mr. William and are at Mrs. Chase's apartment in the joined him there last week, will return Springman were married on Wednes- Woodward acted as best man and Miss Cordova. inic's Church. The ceremony was per- wore embroidered white satin with a veil formed by Rev. M. J. Kennedy in the held with orange blossoms. presence of a large company of relatives and friends. The bride wore a white batiste gown, trimmed in Irish lace over pacity under Hussein Klazim Bey, the white taffeta, with a white lace hat with a willow plume. She carried a shower of Bride roses and lilies of the valley The retirement of M. de Lagercrantz Miss Katherine M. Quinn, who acted as from the post of Swedish Minister re- bridesmald, wore a white batiste frock society during the only season they spent Mr. Springman, and the ushers were I street. Miss Eastman also visited Gen. Messrs, Joseph P. Burke and Mark Cunningham. An informal reception followed There is great promise of a busy sea- the ceremony, after which the bride and Miss Gladys Kerens, youngest daughter of Col. Richard C. Kerens, of St. Louis, American Ambassador at Vienna, was married to Mr. George Hamilton Colnumber of weddings were celebrated Herons Ghyl, in Sussex, where the Rev. daughter of Albert Gallatin, Secretary lowing the luncheon a reception was Held Gloucester, Mass., where they have spent without much previous announcement in Father Bert officiated. Mr. C. Stevenwas the bridesmaid.

CHATELAINE OF SWEDISH LEGATION.

American wife of Swedish Charge d'Affaires ad Interim.

-Photo by G. V. Buck.

MME EKENGREN

to the Thousand Islands, Montreal, nue, after a visit to Cape May.

and children, from Constantinople, through the White Mountains.

hostess there at bridge.

visit to Atlantic City.

"Any Little Girl

That's a Nice Little Girl"

Can get a set of eight dolls

FREE

Loaves of Ewald's Butter

Toast or White Satin

Bread.

WEDNESDAY

AT ALL GROCERS'

Ewald's Bakery,

1244 Florida Ave. N. E.

'Phone Lincoln 686.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Roland For-sumed his duties as president of George

Newport, have gone to Manchester-by-

September 15.

the-Sea.

where she will be guest at the Hotel a wedding breakfast was served. Mr. will spend some time in travel on the moon in Holland and other parts of the sion Play." Continent. Col. and Mrs. Kerens and to Sussex in the afternoon.

Maj. Herman C. Schumm, of the Coast | Quebec, and Halifax. Artillery Corps, and Mrs. Schumm announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Gretchen Elizabeth, to Lieut. Cal-

A pretty ceremony was performed last Nicaraguan Legation. night at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Pillow, in Twining City, when Miss Anna Belle Chase, U. S. A., and her daughter, Mrs. Pillow was married to Mr. Lloyd Stokes Ralston, wife of Lieut. Robert R. Ral-Miss May Regina Berens, daughter of by Rev. H. V. Howlett, pastor of the ston, U. S. A., have returned to this city day morning at 11 o'clock, in St. Dom- Flora Dunn was bridesmaid. The bride

PERSONALS.

Mr. Arosemena, Minister from Panama will leave this week for Mexico.

Miss Miriam Eastman, daughter of Mrs. Eastman and the late Commander Henhat trimmed with plumes. She carried of the Austrian Ambassador and Baroness Hengelmuller, at Bar Harbor, for the last Mr. John J. Cowhig was best man for few weeks, has returned to her home in and Mrs. Forsyth at their summer home at Rockport Me.

> The Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Charles D. Hilles have returned from Lancaster Ohio, where they have spent the summer months.

Mrs. and Miss Tate, mother and sister of Lieut. Tate, Fifteenth Cavalry, have eturned to their home at Fort Myer from a visit in Crockett Springs, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Merrick Gay, of New York, are receiving congratulations Hot Springs for the last twenty years, visited its various resorts. from their friends on the birth of a daugh- were hosts at luncheon there Friday, when ter on Wednesday at Bar Harbor. Mrs. they entertained three American authors, of the Treasury under Presidents Jeffer- on the piazza, to which additional guests the summer months. son and Madison and Minister to France, were asked.

Mrs. R. C. Marshall, wife of Capt. Marshall, left yesterday for Spring Lake, will motor from there to Syracuse, N Y., to make a brief visit.

Rear Admiral and Mrs. E. H. Gheen weeks in Atlantic City. and the Misses Gheen, who have been spending the summer in St. Paul, have make a short stay before returning to at Fort Niagara, and was recently a will be the guests of Capt. Spaulding's their home in this city.

Mr. Clarence K. Pistel has returned about the middle of the month for Mer- celebration. ersburg Academy.

and Mrs. Lloyd have returned to their home in Connecticut avenue, after spend-Washington University. ing some time in Atlantic City.

Maj. Edward Lloyd, U. S. A., retired,

Mr. Walter V. R. Berry, a member of the International Tribunal at Cairo, her home in Easton, Md., from a brief Egypt, is in Washington for a brief va-

Miss Florence Stewart, daughter of Col. W. F. Stewart, U. S. A., who has been the guest of Mrs. William C. Davis, at Fort Strong, Boston Harbor, for the past month, has returned to her home, 1750

Mrs. Lawton, widow of Gen. H. W. Lawton, and her daughters, the Misses Lawton, are visiting Capt. and Mrs. Mulhall, at the "Hollies," near Ballston, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. William H. Robbins have returned to Washington from an extended trip in the North.

One Doll with Every Two Miss Alice W. Goodwin, daughter of the late Capt. Walton Goodwin, U. S. N., is visiting Miss Alexandrine Fitch, daughter of Mrs. Fitch, and the late Chief Engineer Henry Fitch U. S. N.,

Bay Head, N. J. Gen. and Mrs. Anson McCook have taken a cottage at Waumbeck, N. H., for the

Mrs. Sarah J. Moore, of Euclid street, will sail for Europe on Tuesday. She Midshipman R. N. Griffin, of the Naval Academy, is the guest of his parents, Capt. R. S. Griffin, U. S. N., and Mrs. Griffin, at 2008 Kalorama road.

winter.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Kaufman have returned from a fortnight's trip to Canada and the Thousand Islands.

Yard yesterday. Mrs. Halford has been in New England for the summer, but she and Miss Halford will return to Washington about the middle of October and will take an apartment for the Lleut. W. T. Conn, U. S. N., and Mrs. Conn, of Annapolis, Md., have returned from an automobile trip through the Bretton Woods and the White Mountains. They will leave Annapolis to-morrow for Old Point Comfort, where they will spend several weeks.

Mre. William Lee Pryor has returned to this city from Wentworth Farm, Prov ince Lake, N. H.

retired, and Mrs. Baird are on a motor trip through the New England States They left Washington last week and have been staying in Atlantic City for a few days. From there they will motor to Asbury Park.

at Williamstown, Mass., where they are town, Pa., on October 8. visiting their daughter, Mrs. Edwin Lieut. Commander Downs L. Wilson U. S. A., retired, has returned to Washington from Marblehead Neck, Mass.

a visit at Great Diamond Island, Me. Rear Admiral C. T. Hutchins, U. S. N.

retired, who has been visiting in Greenport, N. Y., has returned to this city. Mrs. C. H. Muir, Miss Muir, Master Pay Director and Mrs. Stephen Rand, Connecticut for the winter season.

time at the Oid Sweet Springs, W. Va.

Mrs, S. Powdermaker and family have are established in their new home in La-

Mrs. Gibson, widow of Commander John Gibson, will leave here on Monday for Kentucky, where she will be the guest of Commander Gibson's relatives.

Lieut. James E. Chaney, Ninth United States Infantry, and Mrs. Chaney have arrived at their station at Iloilo, P. I., after a four months' leave of absence, Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Buck have returned to town after a most enjoyable visit spent in Europe and India.

> Miss Sylvia Linshelmer, of Baltimore, is the guest of Miss Hazel Bornheimer.

Capt. Edward E. Capehart, U. S. N., Miss Rose Bradford, daughter of Rear and Mrs. Capehart have taken for the coming season the house in O street, near Admiral Royal B. Bradford, U. S. N., Dupont Circle, formerly occupied by the is visiting the Misses Downing, of New daughter of Commander R. G. Peck, U.

Mrs. Constantine Chase, widow of Col. the Cordova for the winter.

Dr. and Mrs. W. M. Barton have returned to their home, in Connecticut ave- and Mrs. Goodwyn, at Fort Niagara.

from a delightful trip through the moun-Mrs. Samuel G. Jones, wife of Capt. tains of Virginia, visiting her cousin, Miss their future home. S. G. Jones, Eleventh United States Cav-Elizabeth B. Thomas, at Haymarket. alry, will spend the months of September and October at Pomfret Center, Conn.,

Ben Grosvenor. She will be joined there They have been the guests of Miss Grace in New England. by her sister, the Baroness Moncheur. Hammaker, at her summer home in West Gen. Horace Porter, who has been spending most of the summer at his cottage at Bar Harbor, will leave there on spent the last couple of weeks in Atlantic Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson Cromwell have returned to New York after a tour

Mr. Robert Irwin Avery has gone to spend a three weeks' vacation in St. Louis. M. Lefevre-Pontalis, charge d'affaires of the French embassy, and Mme. Le- street, is the guest of Miss Ethel Swinney, fevre-Pontalis, who spent last week in of Baltimore, for the week-end. Mr. Louis P. Shoemaker is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Wilton J. Lambert, at New her home, in P street, Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gibson, who Castle, near Portsmouth, N. H., having have spent their summer at the Virginia toured the coast of New England and > Mrs. G. E. Gelm and her little daughter have returned to their home at the

The class of 1912 of the Academy will The Secretary of the Navy, Mr. George hold its "second class" banquet at the von L. Meyer, will return to Washington New Willard Hotel, on September 22. Midshipman Harold Thompson was in town yesterday making arrangements for

Miss A. B. Parsons and daughter, Miss the event. Gertrude Parsons, are spending a few Mrs. Wilkes, of this city, is the guest gone to Atlantic City, where they will of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Henry D. Styer, been detailed to the War College. They River Reservation, S. Dak., where he has

Among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. to his home in Fourteenth street from an tesque left yesterday for a trip in Mexico, Charles Robert Evans, or Baltimore, on Washington of the wedding of Mr. Perit extended Western trip. He will leave to be there during the coming centennial board their yacht, which is cruising on Fitch Huntington, formerly of George-Rear Admiral C. H. Stockton, U. S. N., retired, returned last week from Blue baker, of Washington, and Mr. Ashley, Mrs. R. C. Pennebaker, Mr. C. B. Penne- city. Ridge Summit, Pa., and has formally re- of Baltimore.

parents, in N street, for several weeks.

spend the month of September at the ter, Mrs. R. C. Vass. Mrs. H. B. Lockwood has returned to Mariborough-Blenheim, Atlantic City, Miss Rachel Jones, of the Prince George, having motored with Mr. Rapley from has gone to Atlantic City to spend several Poland Spring, Me. Mrs. Rapley is at weeks. Miss Ruth Halford, who came to this present entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Wil- Mr. J. McKenney Berry returned to the liam Batchelor Rapley, of Piedmont, W. city after an extensive motor trip which city for the wedding of her cousin, Miss Va. Hood, returned to the Brooklyn Navy

> John Nails, 300 Sixth street southeast. She will also visit for several days with relatives and friends in and around Washington.

At the meeting of the Thursday Euchre Club last week, Mrs. E. H. Walker was the hostess. A most enjoyable afternoon was spent. The following were the prize winners: Mrs. T. A. Bynum, Mrs. D. E. Hardester, Mrs V. J. Matchette, and Mrs.

Mrs. Parker, wife of Capt. Parker, U. S. N., attached to the Norfolk Navy from Mountain Lake Park, where he and

Mrs. and Miss Brander, of Fort Myer. Brander, Fifteenth United States Cav-

TARTAGLIA

Ladies' Tailor SPECIAL PRICES FOR TWO WEEKS EARLY FALL STYLES $30 · ELEGANT SUITS $30 1407 L Street N. W.

Rear Admiral G. W. Baird, U. S. N., for Europe, where he will tour several ecently detached from the United States steamship Panther, is with his parents, Chief Engineer Thom Williamson, U. S. N., and Mrs. Williamson at Chevy Chase. Read Admiral A. S. Barker, U. S. N., Paymaster Williamson will be married to retired, and Mrs. Barker have arrived Miss Eleanor H. Whitman, of German-

> Mrs. Shepherd, wife of Lieut. Shepherd, of Fort Myer, and her house guest, Miss Schmelz, left Sunday for Hampton, Va.

Mrs. E. L. Marshall, accompanied by Miss Madge Gilbert and Miss Elizabeth Mrs. T. B. Bellinger has returned from Bitzer, of Takoma Park, left on Thursday for a fortnight's stay at Atlantic

The flow of visitors at Jordan Sulphur Springs keeps up steadily, and the past week has been full of gayety. A card party was given in the ballroom last Sat-Charles Muir, and Lieut. and Mrs. J. I. urday night by Mrs. M. Baker, when Muir sailed yesterday by the Mallory several tables were filled. Beautiful prizes were given. The first prize, six exquisitely hand-painted china plates, was U. S. N., have taken an apartment in the the others who won were Mr. Cairn, of won by Mrs. Kettner, of Norfolk, while Bel Air; Miss McQuade, Clare Eliot, Mrs. Mrs. Burwell, widow of Rear Admiral McMillan, of Washington, and Miss Ho-W. T. Burwell, U. S. N., is spending some ley, of Portsmouth. Delicious and dainty refreshments were served.

Lindsy T. Kidwell has returned after arrived home from Sea Isle City, and spending five months traveling in the

> Mrs. John Sheridan, accompanied by her two daughters, the Misses Mary and Grace Sheridan, leave this morning for Atlantic City, where they will remain for Mrs. Charles G. Sloan, widow of C. G. Sloan, and her son Mark, accompanied by her sister, Miss Mabel C. Latimer, soprano in the Church of the Sacred Heart, have gone to the Blue Ridge Mountains for a fortnight.

GEORGETOWN.

The marriage of Miss Anna Booth Peck, York, at their cottage, at Prouts Rock, S. N., and Mrs. Peck, to Mr. Samuel Babcock Booth, of Germantown, Pa., will be celebrated Tuesday evening, September 6, Capt. Dickinson Hall, U. S. M. C., and at Saint John's Church, Georgetown, at Mrs. Hall have taken an apartment in 8 o'clock. Rev. Frederick B. Howden, rector of the church, will be the officiat-Miss Tyler, of Washington, and a granddaughter of President Tyler, is the Mr. and Mrs. William B. Orme, from Mr. and Mrs. William B. Orme, from whose residence the wedding will take place. Mr. Booth, who is the son of Mr. Miss Charlotte B. Gridley has returned and Mrs. H. D. Booth, will take his bride to Idaho, where they will make

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leo Kolb left Washington Tuesday for a trip to Boston which Mrs. F. G. Bernhardt and son, Winfield, they will make by water. They will spend have returned to their home in Park road. several weeks visiting points of interest

Miss Nancy M. Peirce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Peirce, of Georgetown, is one of the house party being enter-Miss Helena T. Doocy, of Capitol Hill, talned by Maj. and Mrs. Richard Syl-is the week-end guest of Miss Pauline vester at their summer place, at Bolivar Philips, of Baltimore. Miss Doocy has Heights, W. Va. The house party is given in honor of Midshipman John McFall Sylvester, who is spending his vacation at home since the completion of the Middles' cruise Misses Katherine and Camile DuBois, of Miss Anna May Borland, of Eighteenth Q street, have returned to the city from Capon Springs, W. Va., where they spent the month of August. Miss Bessie Hoover, after spending a month at Cape Henry, Va., returned to Miss Frances Suter returned to Washington last week from Mountain Lake Park, where she spent the greater part

Miss Eva Gilbert and her aunt, Miss Willett, returned to their home in Georgetown Thursday from Westminister, Md., where they have spent the

Miss Margaret E. Sterne, of the Shannon apartment house, left Washington Thursday morning for an extended trip to Indiana, where she will make a number of visits to relatives and friends. Mrs. Thomas King, jr., and her mother, Mrs. Willis Fowler, have returned from Capt. and Mrs. O. L. Spaulding will Atlantic City, where they spent the sumleave Fort Sheridan this week and come mer. Mrs. King will leave Washington to Washington. Capt. Spaulding has shortly to join her husband at Cheyenne recently been appointed as superintendent, and which will be their future

Announcements have been received in Chesapeake Bay, are Mr. and Mrs. L. town, but now residing in Eveleth, Minn., Sinclair, Mr. and Mrs. William Ellis, and Miss Gladys Moraine Ellis, of that

Mr. James W. Harper has returned to his home in Georgetown after spending several weeks in Culpeper, Va., Mrs. William Harryman Rapley will where he has been the guest of his sishe and Mrs Berry made through Vir-Miss Evelyn Ivey, of Warrenton, Va., Mrs. Berry's parents in Winchester, is visiting the family of Mr. and Mrs. where she will remain until later in the

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Kearney, of Rcanoke, Va., are spending a few days with Mrs. Kearney's family in Georgetown before going to Canada, where they will travel for several weeks.

Rev. Frederick B. Howden has returned to Georgetown from Deer Kill, in the White Mountains, where he spent a month with his family. Mrs. Howden and their children will remain some weeks longer at the summer resort.

Rev. James H. W. Blake has returned

Yard, and Miss Margaret Parker are Mrs. Blake and their family have spent visiting at the Sweet Chalybeate Springs, the summer. Mrs. Blake, Miss Blake, and Mrs. Duncan Bradley and her children will remain there for some time longer. Miss Henrietta Darneille is visiting Va., mother and sister of Chaplain friends in Loudoun County, Virginia. Mrs. Robert Hale Merriam, formerly of alry, left Thursday for Atlantic City. Washington, now of St. Paul, Minn., is Chaplain Brander sailed on Thursday spending a few days in this city as the

Whatever Your Fall Cleaning

PAINT, OIL, and VARNISH line can be had to best advantage at Butler's. Complete stock of "ACME-QUALITY" FIN-ISHES-the best in the world. Fo-VORABLE PRICES. CT Call, postal, or phone Main 1751. W.H.BUTLER CO.

607-609 C STREET N. W.

Most Popular Piano Instructor.

A Practical and Thorough School for the Beginner.

Introductory Price, 50 Cents.

(Publisher's Price, 95 Cents.) Each purchaser of this book receives a copy of "Dictionary of Music Terms" gratis.

E. F. DROOP & SONS CO., 1300 G St. N. W.

Miss May King has returned from Wade's Point, Md. Miss Irene Brewer has returned from Roanoke, Va.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. Petty are home from Thousand Islands. Miss Emma Berry is at Atlantic City.

Mrs. Elysabeth Yates, who has been isiting in Detroit since July, reached Washington Wednesday night. She visited the Indian reservation, and had the pleasure of witnessing a genuine war dance. A large party of Washingtonians were in the party, and they enjoyed the unusual sight and sounds. Mrs. Yates was presented with a large bead bag, the highest gift in the power of the chief, which is a real work of art.

Mr. and Mrs. William Orndorff and their two grandchildren spent Thursday at the Rockville Fair. Miss Hodge and Miss Margaret Pelty are in Atlantic City. Monday evening Col. Blount and Mrs. White gave a box party, witnessing "The Servant in the House." Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blount, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart, and Col. Blount and Mrs. White. Mrs. Ames and Mrs. Nisbet have returned to their home in Kalamazoo, after sending some time at The Oaks. Mr. White will join his wife next week. Mrs. W. C. Gwynn and Mr. Henry Beall

Gwynn expect to spend the month of September at Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Mann and family have been taking a two weeks' outing near Rockville. They came back last

Mr. and Mrs. J. Libler, who entertained a number of house guests from Warrenton, Winchester, and Baltimore last week, had the pleasure of welcoming home their two sons who have

Continued on Page 4, Column 1.

BE PROPERLY SUITED

You're sure to be if you let HARITON make your new fall suit or gown. Hariton's workmanship is the best, his prices the lowest

Ladies to Measure Suits Broadcloth Suits, $22.75

Every garment Hariton turns out is made to meet your requirement exactly. Thus a perfect fit assur-ed, besides the exclusive style and rich finish which Hariton always

HARITON The Ladies' Tailor

811 Ninth St. N. W.

Announces the arrival of the latest novelties in designs, materials, and trimmings that will be fashionable for the coming fall and winter season, and as a special inducement to encourage early orders I will make any suit which will cost $55 or $60 in the season

For $4() Each

This offer stands good for orders given before September 20, 1910. Perfect Fit

Best Workmanship Finest Quality

Ladies' Tailor and Dressmaker

908 Fourteenth Street. 2nd Floor